

The Communications Coordination Committee for the United Nations (CCCUN)

CCCUN is a Non-Governmental Organization Founded in 1946 and accredited to UN ECOSOC and UN DGC

Invitation to a Panel Discussion

Co-sponsored by

International Council of Women (ICW-CIF); UNA-USA COO; Pan-Pacific and Southeast Asia
Women's Association International (PPSEAWA Intl); World Federation of Ukrainian Women's Organizations
Young Global Leadership Foundation (YGLF)

Countering Misinformation and Fake News in Many Spheres: COVID-19 and Vaccines; Women and Leadership; Minority Group Portrayal; and Emotionally Charged Headlines Impact on Judgment

This event focuses on strategies for recognizing and countering misinformation, fake news, stereotypes, and its impact. Panelists will discuss misinformation in mainstream and social media environments, including factors related to COVID -19 and vaccines, women and leadership roles, portrayals of minority groups, and how emotionally charged misinformation and headlines influence our judgments.

Tuesday, November 17, 2020

3:00 – 4:30 pm Eastern

Registration Link: Click Here

For sending questions in advance to speakers: cccun@optonline.net

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

Elizabeth Carl, PhD

President, CCCUN

Main UN Representative, International Council of Women (ICW-CIF)

Established 1888 with National Council Organizations in 64 Countries

PARTICIPANTS

Joseph N. Cappella, PhD

Gerald R. Miller Professor of Communication

Annenberg School for Communication

University of Pennsylvania

Bonnie Stabile, PhD

Associate Professor & Director, Master of Public Policy Program

Schar School of Policy and Government

George Mason University

Julia Baum, MSc

Department of Psychology

Berlin School of Mind and Brain

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Chrysalis Wright, PhD

Director, Media & Migration Lab

Department of Psychology

University of Central Florida

Q&A AND AUDIENCE DISCUSSION